Welcome to the ZOOM Big Book Awakening Emotional Sobriety meeting.

I'd like to ask everyone to mute their microphones. Please only unmute when you are ready to share.

To share next, please raise your virtual hand and the meeting host will invite you to share.

Feel free to use the chat feature to message the group.

Please note: this is not a fellowship meeting and as such we allow crosstalk, however we ask our members to respect the program traditions.

This meeting intends to follow courteous principles of privacy & anonymity, if you feel your privacy is at risk please disconnect now. Everyone please respect the traditions and anonymity.

We use the audio portion of this meeting to help others connect with our Big Book Awakening message of recovery. If you don't want to share during the recorded session which will last for the first hour, we have open non-recorded sharing after the meeting.

Our purpose: The members of this group are committed to practicing the 12 Steps as outlined in the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous. It is our intent to share our experience, strength and hope with those who suffer from the disease of alcoholism and/or any other addictions, so that we may carry out our primary purpose, to help Alcoholics and/ or Addicts recover through the 12 Steps.

The format of this meeting is to welcome fellows from all 12-step programs, however our primary focus will be on Emotional Sobriety.

If you are new to Big Book Awakening, we are glad you're here and welcome all questions. The first part of the meeting will be to listen to a speaker for 20 minutes, then we will open the meeting for shares from fellows who have worked the steps through the Big Book Awakening process. The last 10 minutes will be open specifically for newcomers - people who are new to the Big Book Awakening Process or new to the 12 steps in general - to share or ask questions.”

“Please join me in the 3rd Step Prayer followed by five minutes of meditation.”

“God, I offer myself to Thee, to build with me and to do with me as Thou wilt. Relieve me of the bondage of self, that I may better do Thy will. Take away my difficulties, that victory over them may bear witness to those I would help of Thy Power, Thy Love, and Thy Way of life. May I do Thy will always.”

TECH HOST TO SHARE SCREEN WITH SOUND AND PLAY MEDITATION MUSIC.

AFTER 5 MINUTE MEDITATION.

Reading: there are 2 emotional sobriety readings - the tech host will alternate these readings each week.

Today I have asked _____ to read:

...How to translate a right mental conviction into a right emotional result, and so into easy, happy, and good living—well, that’s not only the neurotic’s problem, it’s the problem of life itself for all of us who have got to the point of real willingness to hew to right principles in all our affairs.

...How shall our unconscious—from which so many of our fears, compulsions and phony aspirations still stream—be brought into line with what we actually believe, know and want! How to convince our dumb, raging and hidden “Mr. Hyde” becomes our main task.

Plainly, I could not avail myself of God’s love until I was able to offer it back to Him by loving others as He would have me. And I couldn’t possibly do that so long as I was victimized by false dependencies. For my dependency meant demand—a demand for the possession and control of the people and the conditions surrounding me.

While those words “absolute demand” may look like a gimmick, they were the ones that helped to trigger my release into my present degree of stability and quietness of mind, qualities which I am now trying to consolidate by offering love to others regardless of the return to me.

This seems to be the primary healing circuit: an outgoing love of God’s creation and His people, by means of which we avail ourselves of His love for us. It is most clear that the current can’t flow until our paralyzing dependencies are broken, and broken at depth. Only then can we possibly have a glimmer of what adult love really is...

Thus I think it can work out with emotional sobriety. If we examine every disturbance we have, great or small, we will find at the root of it some unhealthy dependency and its consequent unhealthy demand. Let us, with God’s help, continually surrender these hobbling demands. Then we can be set free to live and love; we may then be able to Twelfth Step ourselves and others into emotional sobriety.

Of course I haven’t offered you a really new idea—only a gimmick that has started to unhook several of my own “hexes” at depth. Nowadays my brain no longer races compulsively in either elation, grandiosity or depression. I have been given a quiet place in bright sunshine.

I’ve asked _____ to read the Characteristics of Chaos Creators.
